Biographical Note: Jo Ann Hermann Emerson was born in Bethesda, Maryland, on September 16, 1950. She was the daughter of Albert B. Hermann and Sylvia B. Bernstein Hermann and had one sister. Her father served at one time as the executive director of the Republican National Committee. In 1972, Emerson graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware, Ohio, with a bachelor of arts degree in political science. After graduating, she worked in communication and lobbying roles for the American Insurance Association, the National Restaurant Association, and the National Republican Congressional Committee. Jo Ann Hermann married Norvell William "Bill" Emerson on June 22, 1975. Bill Emerson died of lung cancer on June 22, 1996. Jo Ann Emerson then married Ron Gladney, an attorney, in January 2000. Bill and Jo Emerson had two daughters; she also has five stepdaughters and a stepson from her husbands' previous marriages.

Bill Emerson represented Missouri's 10th and 8th districts in the United States House of Representatives from 1981 until his death. In November 1996, Emerson was elected to finish her husband's term in the 104th Congress, and also to a new full term in the 105th Congress. Emerson was the first Republican woman to represent Missouri in Congress. She was eventually reelected eight times, representing Missouri's 8th district from 1996 to 2013 (104th Congress-113th Congress). The rural, agricultural district included all of the southeast and much of the south central region of the state. In her first full term (105th Congress, 1997-1999), Emerson served on three House Committees: Agriculture; Small Business; and Transportation and Infrastructure. She also served as a co-chair of the Congressional Hunger Center, a bipartisan, nonprofit organization aimed at relieving domestic and international hunger which had originally been co-chaired by Bill Emerson. From the 106th Congress (1999-2001) until her resignation, Emerson served on the powerful House Appropriations Committee; like most of that committee's members, she served no other committees during that time. Eventually, in the 112th Congress (2011-2013), she became the Chair of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Financial Services and Government. Emerson resigned from Congress on January 22, 2013, to become president and chief executive officer of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association. She retired from that position in 2016 for health reasons.

Scope and Content Note: This collection consists primarily of materials created and collected by Jo Ann Emerson and her office during her service in Congress. The bulk of the materials are subject files created by Emerson and her staff about issues before the House of Representatives and the committees on which she served. Particularly significant are materials related to Emerson's work on subcommittees of the House Committee on Appropriations. There are also significant materials about Emerson's campaigns for office as well as some materials about Bill Emerson. Also of note are over 11,000 original photographs documenting the Emersons' lives and service, along with many audio and video materials. The collection is arranged into thirteen series: Topical & Date Files, House Committee Files, House Committee on Appropriations, Congressional Hunger Center Files, Correspondence, Speeches, Campaign Materials, Bill Emerson Files, General Files, Audiovisual Materials, Books, and Artifacts.
