

Student Music Recital

Kent Library's Fall Athenæum series welcomes Dr. Jeff Noonan and student musicians from Southeast Missouri State University's Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts, Department of Music.

This special recital highlights the ever-expanding talents of Southeast's music students. Recitals are an important part of a complete education in music and mastery of an instrument. This is an exciting opportunity to support developing musicians and enjoy some of the world's most treasured musical masterpieces.

The event is open to all who wish to attend. Refreshments will be served.
